SOUTHEASTERN CONSORTIUM FOR DERMATOLOGY

(S E C)

Sponsored by the
Office of Continuing Medical Education
Virginia Commonwealth University
Medical College of Virginia Campus

SEPTEMBER 18-20, 1998

OMNI RICHMOND HOTEL
AND THE MEDICAL COLLEGE OF VIRGINIA CAMPUS
RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

The educational goal of the Southeast Consortium for Dermatology is to provide updates for dermatologists in one or two areas of clinical dermatology selected from a core curriculum. Faculty presenters are chosen from the Consortium region, and the meeting rotates annually among participating institutions. The Department of Dermatology at the Virginia Commonwealth University, Medical College of Virginia Campus is pleased to host this year's medical conference. This meeting will focus on pediatrics and cutaneous conditions in the immunocompromised host.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

At this Southeast Consortium for Dermatology (SEC) Conference, participants will:

- Discuss the clinical management and review the clinical presentation of specific pediatric skin problems;
- Review current issues in diagnosing and describing genodermatoses;
- Examine the advances in managing patients with bacterial infections and HIV infection;
- Review recent advances in immunology and how these changes impact the skin;
- Review current issues in cutaneous laser and skin cancer surgery.

EDUCATIONAL CREDIT

The School of Medicine, Virginia Commonwealth University, Medical College of Virginia Campus (VCU), is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to sponsor continuing medical education for physicians. VCU designates this educational activity for up to 11.5 hours in category 1 credit toward the AMA Physician's Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity. This continuing education activity meets the criteria of Virginia Commonwealth University and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. 1.1 CEUs will be awarded and recorded with the University Enrollment Services, VCU.

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

The City of Richmond offers both modern convenience and historic atmosphere. Among the attractions awaiting visitors are the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, historic Shockoe Slip, Church Hill, St. John's Church (site of Patrick Henry's famous "Give me liberty or give me death!" oration), and the Virginia State Capitol designed by Thomas Jefferson. The Omni Richmond Hotel is centrally located in downtown Richmond near the heart of the Shockoe Slip Historic District of restaurants, nightclubs and boutiques. Surrounding the city are the Richmond National Battlefield Park system and many gracious plantations. Richmond is only a two hour drive from the mountains, Washington, D.C. and the seashore, and one hour from the restored 18th century town of Colonial Williamsburg.
